

"The Stolen Party" by Liliana Heker Name _____

Pre-Reading Discussion: Have you ever wanted something desperately but you could not afford to get it? How would you describe that feeling?

Text Dependent Questions: Answer with insight and depth. Support your answers with textual evidence.

1. What evidence does the author provide to show that Rosaura's mother is skeptical about her daughter going to the party?

2. What does the exposition reveal about the mother-daughter relationship?

3. Is Rosaura's mother a loving and caring mother? Explain your answer by citing textual evidence.

4. Identify and explain the moment Rosaura realizes the truth about being "invited" to the party.

5. What is the central/main idea of this narrative? How do you know?

